

EXAM: MAY 2023

Name: _____

I. Matching:

Match the item in column A with the item that best relates to it in column B by placing the letter of the correct answer in the appropriate blank. (8 pts)

Column A

A William J. Bryan
E Tom Watson
I James Weaver
M Gifford Pinchot

B Henry Grady
F Marcus Garvey
J Combined Harvester
N broncobuster

C Wallace Stegner
G J. W. Powell
K Jerry Simpson
O Stephen Douglas

D McCormick Reaper
H Rough Riders
L Charles Macune
P Jane Adams

Column B

1. M Served as the 1st chief of the U.S. Forest Service. His bloomed friendship with Roosevelt was based on their shared love of the outdoors.
2. A His 'Cross of Gold' speech called for abolishing the gold standard and inflating the currency to relieve debtors, especially farmers.
3. H The members of a volunteer regiment of cavalry organized by Theodore Roosevelt and Leonard Wood for service in the Spanish-American War.
4. D It revolutionized agriculture, making it possible to harvest large areas of grain much faster than could have been done by men wielding scythes.
5. I He helped to organize the Populist Party and was its nominee for the presidential election of 1892.
6. B A passionate journalist and charismatic public speaker, He was known as the "The Spokesman of the New South."
7. E Nominated by the Populist Party as its vice presidential candidate in 1896. His life is one of the more perplexing and controversial among Georgia politicians.
8. G His 1878 Report on the Arid Regions suggested new a new approach to land use in the High Plains and the Great Basin.
9. C Author and American historian who is best known for his prolific writing on the American West. One of his masterpieces is Beyond the Hundredth Meridian
10. L His plan sought to revolutionize credit and marketing arrangements for staple crops, particularly wheat and cotton.

II. Gap-filling: Fill in the gaps with the appropriate answer (12 pts)

1. One of Ignatius Donnelly's popular novels. It has been variously categorized as science fiction, speculative fiction, dystopian fiction, and/or apocalyptic fiction Caesar's Column

2. American Populist orator and politician whose fiery appeals for Kansas farmers to ‘raise less corn and more hell’ made her a national figure during the early 1890s Marry Lease
3. It traveled around the world from 1907 to 1909 to demonstrated U.S. naval power, showing it was of comparable strength to other major powers and empires of the time The White Fleet
4. It authorized the Interstate Commerce Commission to regulate railroad pricing and sought to end the practice of railroads offering rebates to preferred companies The Hepburn Act 1906
5. U.S. dissident political faction that nominated former president Theodore Roosevelt as its candidate in the presidential election of 1912 The Bull Moose Party
6. In 1896, in unabashed defiance of the 15th Amendment to the Constitution, Louisiana passed it in order to keep former slaves and their descendants from voting Grandfather Clause
7. The decision in this Supreme Court case upheld a Louisiana law that allowed for ‘equal but separate accommodations for the white and colored races’ Plessy vs. Ferguson
8. A proponent of a woman’s legal and social equality during the 19th century. In 1848, she organized the first national woman’s rights convention in Seneca Falls, New York Elizabeth C. Stanton
9. Founded by Booker T. Washington in 1881 under a charter from the Alabama legislature for the purpose of training teachers in Alabama Tuskegee Institute
10. Delivered by William Jennings Bryan, the speech advocated bimetallism. At the time, the Democratic Party wanted to standardize the value of the dollar to silver The Cross of Gold Speech
11. Booker T. Washington’s autobiography. It promoted a vision of racial harmony that required blacks to disregard their desires for racial equality Up from Slavery
12. The dried dung used as fuel, esp. by early settlers on the Great Plains Buffalo Chips

The best of Luck!