

Grammar Exam Model answer

Exercise 01: Insert the suitable quantifier in each blank to complete the sentences correctly.

(each, many, every, a few, a little, some, no, most, much and none)

1. The committee agreed that each proposal had merits, but a few were feasible within the budget.
2. Although most of the students had done some work, the results were still disappointing.
3. Every participant was given a little time to introduce themselves.
4. Many factors contributed to the failure, yet much of the blame was placed on management.
5. No evidence was presented, and none of the witnesses were reliable.

Exercise 02 : Choose the correct comparative or superlative form of the adjective to complete each sentence appropriately.

1. Out of all the submissions, hers was by far the most creative.
2. That was the worst performance I've seen all year.
3. The traffic is always heavier on Fridays than on any other weekday.
4. The spacecraft traveled farther or further than originally expected.
5. Of the two proposals, hers was less convincing.

Exercise 03 : Select the correct form—adjective or adverb—to complete each sentence appropriately.

1. She's a _____ highly _____ skilled negotiator who always remains calm.
2. The students worked _____ efficiently _____ to meet the tight deadline.
3. I feel _____ good _____ about the results of the project.
4. The conference was _____ perfectly _____ organized, with every detail thought out.
5. Her voice sounded quite _____ strange _____ over the phone.

Exercise 04:

(A) Rewrite the sentences below by placing the adjectives in the right order.

1. He found a (valuable, rare, old, African) coin in the attic.

He found a rare, valuable, old, African coin in the attic.

2. She served tea in a (small, ceramic, chinese, delicate) cup.

She served tea in a delicate, small, Chinese, ceramic cup.

3. The museum showcased a (glass, intricate, ancient, Italian) sculpture.

The museum showcased an intricate, ancient, Italian, glass sculpture.

4. He gave me a (silk, elegant, black, long) scarf for my birthday.

He gave me an elegant, long, black, silk scarf for my birthday.

5. The archaeologists unearthed a (bronze, ancient, ceremonial, massive) helmet.

The archaeologists unearthed a massive, ancient, ceremonial, bronze helmet.

(B) Rewrite the sentences below by placing the words in the right order.

1. The director / immediately / without hesitation / in front of the team / made a decision.

The director immediately made a decision in front of the team without hesitation.

2. They /before the deadline/ flawlessly / under pressure / delivered the proposal.

They flawlessly delivered the proposal under pressure before the deadline.

3. The lawyer / with careful wording /successfully / in court / defended / her client.

The lawyer successfully defended her client in court with careful wording.

4. They / the house /completely /renovated / last summer/ in the countryside / beautifully .

They completely renovated the house beautifully in the countryside last summer .

5. She /speaks / these days / rarely/ so confidently /in public.

She rarely speaks so confidently in public these days.