

English Exam: Computer Science Proficiency

Group:

Master 1 AD

1) Circle the right answer: (1pts each)

1. Consistency is Key:

- a) Unified presentation.
- b) Different backgrounds and interests.
- c) Enhances audience engagement.

2. Diverse Needs:

- a) Comprehension.
- b) Avoid clutter.
- c) Captures viewer's attention.

3. The Rule of Six advocates for six lines and six words max on a slide. a) True b) False

4. Careful use of colours in slides enhances focus and avoids distraction. a) True b) False

5. KISS (Keep It Short and Simple) suggests that slides should be designed for the presenter's convenience alone.

- a) True b) False

6. What is the key disadvantage of uncontrolled questions during a presentation?

- a) Enhances audience engagement.
- b) Risks disrupting the flow, leading to poor time management.
- c) Encourages audience participation.
- d) Ensures a smooth and interactive presentation.

7. When should you encourage detailed or off-topic questions during a presentation?

- a) Only at the beginning.
- b) At any time.
- c) Only at the end.

8. How does reframing a question benefit the presenter?

- a) Confuses the audience.
- b) Provides extra thinking time.
- c) Increases audience engagement.
- d) Disrupts the flow of the presentation.

9. What is the primary goal of Mr. Jibe's approach to questions?

a) Ignoring questions.

b) Trapping presenters into mistakes.

c) Enhancing audience engagement.

d) Ensuring clarity and understanding.

10. What could be a consequence of allowing questions at any time?

a) Enhanced audience engagement.

b) Risk of getting sidetracked by off-topic questions.

c) Ensuring a smooth and interactive presentation.

d) Time management improvement.

11. "Hi, friends! Grab a seat; we're about to explore..." a) Informal b) formal.

12. "Good [morning/afternoon/evening], ladies and gentlemen. Today, I am here to discuss..." a) Informal b) formal.

13. "Hello, friends! Let's talk about the cool subject of..." a) Informal b) formal.

2) Put the statements in the right column (0.5 each)

1. "To wrap up... "
2. "In conclusion..."
3. "To summarize..."
4. "Feel free to consider..."
5. "Now, I invite your thoughts on..."
6. "Any questions?"
7. "We, therefore, recommend that..."
8. "Before we conclude, let's revisit the key takeaways."

Signaling the end of the presentation:	Summarizing the main points:	Recommending or suggesting something	Inviting questions:
8,2,1	3,8,1	7,4	5,6

3) Identify the organizational technique, its underlying principle, and the appropriate circumstances for its application. (1 pts each)

Primacy: الأهمية (meaning in Arabic)

Principle: check the first lecture.....(in English

)When to use it: ... check the first lecture.....(in English)