

English Exam: Computer Science Proficiency

Group:

Master 2 AD

1) Circle the right answer: 1pts each)

1. Consistency is Key:

- a) Unified presentation.
- b) Different backgrounds and interests.
- c) Enhances audience engagement.

2. Attune to Attitudes:

- a) A concise, clear message wins.
- b) Understand audience perspectives and attitudes.
- c) Enhances presenter credibility.

3. KISS (Keep It Short and Simple) suggests that slides should be designed for the presenter's convenience alone. a) True b) False

4. Slides enhance and do not replace. a) True b) False

5. Varied Expectations suggests that audience expectations are universal and don't vary.

- a) True b) False

6. In Dr. Heckle's approach, what should you do after reframing a provocative statement?

- a) Ignore the statement.
- b) Review the underlying motive.
- c) Respond with agreement.
- d) Answer with uncertainty.

7. Why does Mr. Jibe use the opening phrase 'Isn't it true that...?' in his questions?

- a) To confuse the presenter.
- b) To show off.
- c) To trap presenters into mistakes.
- d) To ensure clarity in communication.

8. How to answer Dr. Heckle's challenging question?

- a) Ignore the question.
- b) Rephrase and repeat the question to the whole audience.
- c) Respond with uncertainty.
- d) Agree with the questioner.

9. What is the primary advantage of repeating a question during a presentation?

- a) Confusing the audience.
- b) Providing extra thinking time.
- c) Ensuring the audience is unaware of the question.
- d) Enhancing audience engagement.

10. What could be a consequence of allowing questions at any time?

- a) Enhanced audience engagement.
- b) Risk of getting sidetracked by off-topic questions.
- c) Ensuring a smooth and interactive presentation.
- d) Time management improvement.

11. Hello, everyone. I am honoured to speak on the topic of..." a) Informal b) formal.

12. "Hey, folks! Ready to dive into the interesting world of..." a) Informal b) formal.

13. "Thank you for joining me. Our focus for today is..." a) Informal b) formal.

2) Put the statements in the right column: (0.5 each)

1. "I propose..."
2. "I encourage you to..."
3. "Please consider..."
4. "What are your opinions?"
5. "I'm here for any questions you may have."
6. "In my opinion, we should..."
7. "We just have time for a few questions."
8. "To wrap up my presentation."

Signalling the end of the presentation:	Summarizing the main points:	Recommending or suggesting something	Inviting questions:
8,7	8	1,2,3,6,7	5,4

3) Identify the organizational technique, its underlying principle, and the appropriate circumstances for its application. (1 pts each)

Complexity: التعقيد.....(meaning in Arabic)

Principle: check the first lecture.....(in English)

When to use it: check the first lecture.....(in English)