English Exam: Computer Science Proficiency

1) Circle the right answer: 1pts each)

1. Varied Expectations:

a) Meets their specific needs.

b) Differing audience expectations.

c) Promotes effective communication.

2. Attune to Attitudes:

a) A concise, clear message wins.

b) Understand audience perspectives and attitudes.

c) Enhances presenter credibility.

3. Slides are used only for the audience's convenience. a) True   b) False

4. Slides enhance and do not replace.   a) True   b) False

5. Consistency is Key advocates for using a different colour palette for each slide. a) True   b) False

6. In Dr. Heckle's approach, what should you do after reframing a provocative statement?

a) Ignore the statement.

b) Review the underlying motive.

c) Respond with agreement.

d) Answer with uncertainty.

7. Why does Mr. Jibe use the opening phrase 'Isn't it true that...?' in his questions?

a) To confuse the presenter.

b) To show off.

c) To trap presenters into mistakes.

d) To ensure clarity in communication.

8. How does reframing a question benefit the presenter?

a) Confuses the audience.

b) Provides extra thinking time.

c) Increases audience engagement.

d) Disrupts the flow of the presentation.

9. When should you encourage detailed or off-topic questions during a presentation?

a) Only at the beginning.

b) At any time.

c) Only at the end.

d) Enhancing audience engagement.

10. What could be a consequence of allowing questions at any time?

a) Enhanced audience engagement.

b) Risk of getting sidetracked by off-topic questions.

c) Ensuring a smooth and interactive presentation.

d) Time management improvement.

11."I appreciate your presence. Let's delve into the topic of..." a) Informal   b) formal.

12."Greetings, esteemed colleagues. I would like to address the subject of..." a) Informal   b) formal.

13."Hey there, everyone! I'm thrilled to discuss..." a) Informal   b) formal.

2) Put the statements in the right column: (0.5 each)

1. "As a final point..."

2. "To bring it all together..."

3. "To sum it up..."

4. "I'm open to your feedback."

5. "I suggest that ….."

6. "Please share your thoughts."

7. "Thank you all for listening."

8. "In my opinion, we should..."

Signalling the end of the presentation:	Summarizing the main points:	Recommending or suggesting something	Inviting questions:
1,2,3,7	2,3	5,8	4,6

3) Identify the organizational technique, its underlying principle, and the appropriate circumstances for its application. (1 pts each)

Primacy: ….(meaning in Arabic)

Principle:

check the first lecture…………………………………………………………………………………………(in English)

When to use it: check the first lecture…………………………………………………………………………………………(in English)