

University of Oum El Bouaghi

Bachelor's degree in Geography

Program Description:

The BAC's degree allows to pursue bachelor's degree in geography and territory planning. The program provides the student with the keys to understanding regional planning policies, instruments, major projects, governance and territorial planning and to learn to work on a territorial development project (tourism, economy, etc.) . In addition, the student will be able to acquire the terminology and the fundamental concepts of territorial development, sustainable development, territorial governance, territorial marketing, etc.