

University of Oum El Bouaghi

Bachelor's degree in Linguistics

1. Program Description:

It is an academic training based on a didactic study of letters and Arabic language. Students will have to master Arabic as a native language in all its linguistic, semantic and cultural dimension and will be equipped with a general culture that will allow them to better integrate into the professional space.

2. Entry Requirements (Other) :

The minimum baccalaureate rates accepted at Algerian universities are used to establish the rate at which a student must have earned their degree in order to enter the program.