

University of Oum El Bouaghi

Bachelor's degree in Sports-related Subjects

Bachelor of Competitive Sports Training

Program Description:

The institutes of science and techniques of physical and sports activities ensure the training of students in the three phases of bachelor - master - doctorate, according to the system (Lmd) through courses that contribute to qualifying students to work in the fields of primary, intermediate and secondary education, sports training, and motor rehabilitation centers in addition to working in The various sectors, dissemination, application and development of knowledge in order to prepare frameworks of high scientific quality with recognized scientific standards in the fields of education and training to play an effective role in community service, contributing to the advancement of public health through the practice of physical and sports activities, as well as conducting studies and research that contribute to Solving social problems, Preparing a comprehensive program for development and raising the level of professional and administrative competence for its members.

University Official Website :

Entry Requirements (Other) :

The minimum baccalaureate rates accepted at Algerian universities are used to establish the rate at which a student must have earned their degree in order to enter the program.