

Correction: Second Term Exam

Task One: Choose the Correct Answer

1. A constitution is:
→ b) The highest law of a country
2. The United States Constitution explains:
→ b) How the government works
3. The United States Bill of Rights protects:
→ b) Individual freedoms
4. An amendment means:
→ b) Changing or adding to the Constitution
5. The United States Congress is responsible for:
→ a) Making laws
6. International law deals with:
→ b) Relations between countries
7. Equality before the law means:
→ b) Everyone is treated the same
8. US courts are part of:
→ c) Judicial branch
9. The UK system is based on:
→ b) Parliamentary power
10. One difference between US and UK courts is:
→ b) The US has a written constitution

Task Two: True or False

1. A constitution is the highest legal authority in a state. → True
2. The Bill of Rights limits government power and protects individual freedoms. → True
3. International law is about relations between countries. → True
4. The US Congress makes laws in the US. → True
5. US and UK courts operate under the same legal principles. → False