

Second Semester English Exam answers – M1 AD

Exercise 1: Pick the correct answer: (5pts) (5x1pts)

1. What is an example of an interactive element in a presentation?

- a) Talking smoothly without interruption
- b) Asking questions
- c) fixating on eye contact with the audience
- d) Reading from slides

2. What is the purpose of storytelling in a presentation?

- a) To make abstract concepts less relatable
- b) To decrease audience engagement
- c) To make the presentation longer
- d) To captivate the audience's attention

3. What is an example of audience interaction?

- a) Ignoring audience questions
- b) Encouraging audience participation through Q&A sessions
- c) Speaking at a fast pace without pauses
- d) Maintaining a closed body language

4. What is the purpose of rehearsal in presentation preparation?

- a) To increase anxiety
- b) To identify areas for improvement
- c) To decrease confidence
- d) To rush through the content

5. Why is seeking feedback and iterating on your presentation important?

- a) To procrastinate improvement
- b) To maintain a static presentation
- c) To identify areas for improvement and refine skills
- d) To discourage collaboration

Exercise 2: Imagine you are concluding a presentation about a lesson from this semester. Write a script for your ending/conclusion. (15pts)

- Being on topic: 2pts
- Applying the four steps of concluding a presentation: 8 pts (4x2pts)
- Inviting questions smoothly: 2pts
- Language: 3pts