- 3 -What are the references of the terminological crisis within the enunciation system in Maghrebi linguistic dictionaries?
- 4 - Have the recommendations of the Arabic language academies succeeded in remedying the complex terminology crisis?
- 5 - Can we count on the contribution of the digitised terminology banking system in contemporary Maghrebian terminology production?

Axes of the colloquium:

- 1 - The linguistic term specialized in modern and contemporary Maghrebian studies.
- 2 - The making of the linguistic term in specialized Maghrebian dictionaries.
- 3 - The methods of identification of the linguistic term in the specialised Maghrebian dictionaries.
- 4 - The translation of the foreign linguistic term in specialised dictionaries (referential bases and methodical problems).
- 5 - Perspectives concerning the realization of a functional linguistic dictionary for researchers and academicians.

Preamble:

The linguistic terminology system in specialised Maghrebian dictionaries (modern and contemporary) has caused a crisis among academicians from their reception and representation of this science until their attempts to do the same.

The first generation of linguists behaved with their science, as did all those who specialized in other fields with their specialty: trying to overcome ideas and attract concepts with all terminological engendering the manipulation of the meanings in most of the time ahead of the terminological confusion as cognitive perceptions and linguistic techniques, all related to the formulations of meaning.

Objectives of the conference:

- 1 - The highlighting of Maghrebian research efforts in the field of specialised linguistic dictionary-making.
- 2 - Demonstrate the particularities of the linguistic term in Maghrebian linguistic dictionaries.
- 3 - Knowledge of terminology classification modes and methods of defining the linguistic term.
- 4 - Attempt to find remedies to the problematic of the term (distorted translation).
- 5 - To encourage terminology production in the field of linguistics and show its successful cognitive results
